

Fairfax R-III Covid 19 SPED Plan

It is the goal of the Fairfax R3 School District to ensure that all of our students have access to valuable learning experiences regardless of the setting where that learning occurs. In order to accomplish that goal and to stay in compliance with IDEA requirements, we will be offering special education services via distance learning methods starting in phase two of our shutdown plan. We feel it is our moral obligation to care for our students during this crisis and want to make sure we do everything we can to extend that care outside the regular school setting.

Our goals during each phase of the shutdown are to ensure safety for all stakeholders connected to Fairfax R-III, provide appropriate instructional services for all ages of Fairfax R-III students, continue a positive working climate for staff, and provide good fiscal stewardship. We understand our responsibility to our families and our community and want to do all we can to continue our mission of education.

Our special education teachers will be in contact with families to discuss IEP's, goals, accommodations, and any evaluations or renewals that will need to be serviced during a phase two shutdown. IEP's may be modified through collaboration with parents to create the most optimal situation for student services. Just like with regular-education distance learning, parents may need to help by supervising the activities of, reading with, or assisting with interventions developed for their students.

Timing will be essential in a phase 2 or 3 shutdown. It will not be the expectation of the district that teachers work later than normal office hours on a regular basis. It will be the goal of our special education program to provide as many services as possible during what would be considered the hours of a regular school day. While this may result in an additional burden on childcare providers and parents, our staff will work with families to find a way to make the experience successful.

Things to remember:

- Times are subject to change based on student needs.
- All contact minutes and attempts at contact minutes are documented daily.
- Parents will be contacted through email or phone regarding IEP timelines, required paperwork, and ways to facilitate meetings via technology.
